UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE EIGHTH CIRCUIT

Jonathan Daniel Clements,
Appellant,

v.

State of Arkansas, et al
Appellees.

Case No. 25-3497

SWORN STATEMENT OF FACTS
RE: JANUARY 9, 2026 COURT APPEARANCE DISCREPANCY

I, Jonathan Daniel Clements, declare the following facts to be true and accurate to the best of my knowledge, under penalty of perjury:

On a prior court appearance in Booneville District Court, the sitting judge personally instructed me to return to court on January 9, 2026. The judge wrote this date by hand on the paperwork at the bench, in blue ink, during open court proceedings.

Upon exiting the courthouse that day, I created a livestream on the platform X (formerly Twitter), confirming the date of January 9, 2026. I also posted an additional written note in the same thread, affirming that this was the official date I was given by the court.

On January 9, 2026, I physically appeared at the Booneville courthouse. The building was closed, and no court session was in progress. I was subsequently directed by signage to another location to speak with the court clerk, located in a separate building.

When I reached the clerk's office, I politely greeted staff multiple times before being acknowledged. I asked the clerk directly to confirm whether I had court on that date. Without typing into her system or verifying the docket, she abruptly stated that court had taken place the day prior, on January 8, 2026.

The clerk refused to provide written verification of the alleged court date change, nor did she permit me to file any further documents or materials into the record, claiming they were unrelated to the case. This was despite prior attempts to submit filings relevant to ongoing trust matters and vehicle-related citations.

My bondsman, Billy, confirmed that January 9th did not align with standard misdemeanor court hearing schedules. He acknowledged this deviation and confirmed that no failure-to-appear had been issued as of that morning.

To date, I have received no written or verbal notification from the court, sheriff, or any officer of the court informing me of a change in court date.

I appeared in good faith on the date set by the court. I walked over six miles on foot round trip to appear, only to find the building closed and be told without evidence that court had been held the previous day.

The situation presents a clear and egregious violation of due process, and I am now under risk of an improper failure-to-appear designation despite full compliance with court instructions.

I respectfully submit this sworn statement to the Appeals Court and any reviewing authority as factual evidence of procedural misconduct and systemic failure within Booneville District Court.

Executed this 10th day of January, 2025
